

ENVIRONMENTAL FIELD TRIP DESTINATIONS

Kaua'i

The Kōkua Hawai'i Foundation Field Trip Grants help bring students to outdoor sites where they can experience hands-on learning about Hawai'i's environment. The Kōkua Hawai'i Foundation offers financial assistance to Hawai'i public schools which otherwise could not afford to participate in environmental field trips. Most field trip locations provide hands-on learning experiences for students grades K-12 and offer educational tours that can be customized to any grade level.

KOKE'E NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM

Nurturing the bond between people and place is the deepest intent of Hui o Laka's park stewardship program, Kōkua Koke'e!. For all who have experienced the calm and exhilaration of these mountain parks, it is clear how important these mountains are in our lives.

p: (808) 335-9975

w: www.kokee.org/natural-history-museum/for-teachers

ALLERTON GARDEN

Your group can view the cliffs of the Lāwa'i Valley still cascade deep-purple bougainvillea and enjoy a natural showcase for tropical plants and the ancient Jurassic trees.

p: (808) 742-2623 w: www.ntbg.org/gardens/allerton.php

KĪLAUEA POINT NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Kilauea Point NWR environmental education programs engage learners of all ages and focus on seabirds, native coastal plants, marine mammals, and stewardship. School groups can schedule refuge interpretive tours and environmental education programs throughout the year. School bus transportation funds are available through Kilauea Point Natural History Association.

p: (808) 635-0925 w: www.kilaueapoint.org

LIMAHULI GARDEN AND PRESERVE

At the Limahuli Garden you can learn about the native plants of Hawai'i, the plants brought to the islands by voyaging Polynesians, and the flowers and fruits introduced during Hawai'i's plantation era.

p: (808) 742-2623

w: www.ntbg.org/gardens/limahuli.php

McBRYDE GARDEN

Explore the unique biodiversity of native and exotic plants, recognized for their value and their beauty. See rare and endangered Hawaiian species and learn about the efforts to save them. Visit the living laboratory and take a trip back to ancient Hawai'i in the Canoe Garden.

p: (808) 742-2623 w: www.ntbg.org/gardens/mcbryde.php

NĀ 'ĀINA KAI BOTANICAL GARDENS

Nā 'Āina Kai, "Lands by the Sea" in Hawaiian, is ever-evolving and unique among the world's botanical gardens. You will find the particular rare palette of flora, fauna, land, water, and more. All tours are guided and suitable for children 12 and older. Children younger than 12 will enjoy the "Under the Rainbow" Children's Garden Family Tours.

p: (808) 828-0575

w: www.naainakai.org/visitor/touring.html#descriptions

GETTING STARTED

- Teachers should contact destinations directly to book field trip dates and tours.
- KHF Field Trip Grant applications can be downloaded at www.kokuahawaiifoundation.org
- Completed grant applications should be emailed to grants@kokuahawaiifoundation.org or faxed to 808-638-0757

www.kokuahawaiifoundation.org/fieldtrip

grants@kokuahawaiifoundation.org